BEARS 2009

Video and Image Processing Lab
307 Cory Hall, 2:00 – 5:00pm

The VIP lab carries out research in the broad areas of signal, image and video processing. Past projects include 3D signal processing, and analysis, computer vision, image and video communication, and applications of signal processing to semiconductor manufacturing, e.g. OPC and data compression for direct write lithography systems.